Information You have to provide to Us

In deciding to accept this Policy and in setting the terms and premium, We have relied on the information You have given Us. You must provide a fair presentation of the risk and must take care when answering any questions We ask by ensuring that all information is accurate and complete. A fair presentation is one which clearly discloses in a reasonably clear and accessible manner all material facts which You (including Your senior management and those responsible for arranging this insurance) know or ought to know following a reasonable search..

If We establish that You deliberately or recklessly failed to provide Us with a fair presentation, We will treat Your Policy as if it never existed and decline all claims. We will not return premium already paid by You in this situation.

If We establish that You failed to provide a fair presentation, but where You were not deliberate or reckless in doing so, it can adversely affect Your Policy and any claim, as set out below.

Where We would have accepted the risk and offered You a Policy but We would have charged a higher premium, We may only pay a percentage of any claim that You make under the Policy. We would do this by considering the premium We actually charged as a percentage of the higher premium We would have charged and then paying You the same percentage of any claim

Where We would not have accepted the risk at all, We may treat your Policy as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium, subject to a deduction for any commission paid to Your Broker.

If We would have written the risk on different terms (other than as to premium) if it had been fairly presented, We will amend the Policy to include these terms as if they were in place from the start of the Period of Insurance. This could result in Us not paying a claim, reducing the amount We pay, or requiring you to repay any payment We have already made and claim.. We may apply these amended terms as if they were already in place before a claim is made

We may cancel Your Policy in accordance with its cancellation provisions

We will write to You if We:

1. intend to treat Your Policy as if it never existed; or
2. amend the terms of Your Policy; or
3. reduce Your claim in accordance with the above; or
4. cancel the Policy.

If You become aware that information You have given Us is inaccurate or incomplete, You must inform Us as soon as practicable.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme

The Underwriters are members of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme if We are unable to meet our liabilities under this insurance. This depends on the type of business and the circumstances of the claim. Such claims are protected for 90% without any upper limit. For compulsory classes of insurance the claim will be met in full. Further information about the compensation scheme arrangements is available from FSCS. Information can be obtained on request, or by visiting the FSCS website at www.fscs.org.uk.

Important Information

The Employers Liability (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations 1998 lay down certain obligations for employers and in particular You should be aware of the following.

Display of Certificates

We will provide You with a Certificate of Employers Liability Insurance and this will state clearly the companies covered by it. You must display either an original copy or make available a copy of the Certificate of Employers Liability Insurance in an electronic format at each Business Premises where Your Employees can see it easily.

Retention of Certificates

The Employers' Liability (Compulsory Insurance Amendment) Regulations 2008 remove the requirement for You to retain copies of Certificates of Employers Liability Insurance that have expired for at least 40 years. However it is still good business practice to retain the certificates because certain claims eg disease could be made many years after the disease is caused and if Your insurer can not be identified You could be liable for any payments.

You have the right to object to the use of profiling activities and the use of automated decision making (services/tools and techniques).

In exercising your Individual Rights, you should understand that in some situations we may be unable to fully meet your request, for example if you make a request for us to delete all your personal data, we may be required to retain some data for taxation, prevention of crime and for regulatory and other statutory purposes.

You should understand that when exercising your rights, a substantial public or vital interest may take precedence over any request you make. In addition, where these interests apply, we are required by law to grant access to this data for law enforcement, legal and/or health related matters.

The flow of data within the insurance sector is complex and we ask you to keep this in mind when exercising your 'rights of access' to your information. Where we may be reliant on other organisations to help satisfy your request this may impact on timescales.
