Financial Services Compensation Scheme

The Underwriters are members of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme if we are unable to meet our liabilities under this insurance. This depends on the type of business and the circumstances of the claim. Such claims are protected for 90% without any upper limit. For compulsory classes of insurance the claim will be met in full. Further information about the compensation scheme arrangements is available from FSCS. Information can be obtained on request, or by visiting the FSCS website at www.fscs.org.uk

Important Information

The Employers Liability (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations 1998 lay down certain obligations for employers and in particular You should be aware of the following

Display of Certificates

We will provide You with a Certificate of Employers Liability Insurance and this will state clearly the companies covered by it You must display either an original copy or make available a copy of the Certificate of Employers Liability Insurance in an electronic format at each Business Premises where Your Employees can see it easily

Retention of Certificates

The Employers' Liability (Compulsory Insurance Amendment) Regulations 2008 remove the requirement for You to retain copies of Certificates of Employers Liability Insurance that have expired for at least 40 years However it is still good business practice to retain the certificates because certain claims e.g. disease could be made many years after the disease is caused and if Your insurer can not be identified You could be liable for any payments

Privacy Notice

ABOUT US

We, Henry Seymour & Co (trading name of Barkdene Ltd) also referred to as "we", "us", or "our" area registered company in England (Company no. 1842617. Our registered address is Chancery House, St Nicholas Way, Sutton, Surrey SM1 1JB. We are an independent insurance broker, authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority under registration number 303965.

The PURPOSE OF THIS NOTICE

This Notice is designed to help you understand what kind of information we collect in connection with our products and services and how we will process and use this information. In the course of providing you with products and services we will collect and process information that is commonly known as personal data.

This Notice describes how we collect, use, share, retain and safeguard personal data.

This Notice sets out your individual rights; we explain these later in the Notice but in summary these rights include your right to know what data is held about you, how this data is processed and how you can place restrictions on the use of your data.

WHAT IS PERSONAL DATA?

Personal data is information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. Examples include an individual's name, age, address, date of birth, their gender and contact details.

Personal data may contain information which is known as special categories of personal data. This may be information relating to an individual's health, racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic and biometric data, or data relating to or sexual orientation.

Personal data may also contain data relating to criminal convictions and offences.

For the purposes of safeguarding and processing criminal conviction and offence data responsibly, this data is treated in the same manner as special categories of personal data, where we are legally required to comply with specific data processing requirements.

PERSONAL DATA WE COLLECT

In order for us to provide and administer insurance for you we will collect and process personal data about you. We will also collect your personal data where you request information about our services, customer events, promotions and campaigns.

We may also need to collect personal data relating to others in order to provide and administer insurance. In most circumstances, you will provide us with this information. Where you disclose the personal data of others, you must ensure you are entitled to do so.

You may provide us with personal data when completing online quote or contact forms, when you contact us via the telephone, when writing to us directly or where we provide you with paper based forms for completion or we complete a form in conjunction with you.

We will share your personal data within our firm and with business partners. This is normal practice within the insurance industry where it is necessary to share information in order to place, quantify and underwrite risks, to assess overall risk exposure and to process claims. It is also necessary to determine the premium payable and to administer our business.

We also share personal data with authorised third parties, this is necessary where we are required to do so by law, where we need to administer our business, to quote for, source, place and administer your insurances (including arranging insurance premium finance) to perform underwriting activities and to process claims. Some examples follow:

- Insurers;
- Underwriters;
- Premium finance providers;
- Credit reference agencies;
- Debt recovery agencies;
- Claims handling companies;
- Loss adjusters;
- Insurance brokers;
- Reinsurers;
- Regulators.

We will collect your personal data when you visit our website, where we will collect your unique online electronic identifier; this is commonly known as an IP address.

We will also collect electronic personal data when you first visit our website where we will place a small text file that is commonly known as a cookie on your computer. Cookies are used to identify visitors and to simplify accessibility, and to monitor visitor behaviour when viewing website content, navigating our website and when using features. For more information please see our Cookie Policy.

We may record your communications with us when contacting our customer care, complaints and other customer focused functions. We also collect personal data through the use of telematics or similar locational tracking services, where you have agreed to the use of this particular service.

Where we collect data directly from you, we are considered to be the controller of that data i.e. we are the data controller. Where we use third parties to process your data, these parties are known as processors of your personal data. Where there are other parties involved in underwriting or administering your insurance they may also process your data in which circumstance we will be a joint data controller of your personal data.

A data 'controller' means the individual or organisation which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data.

A data 'processor' means the individual or organisation which processes personal data on behalf of the controller.

As a provider of insurance services, we will process the following categories of data:

- Personal data such as an individual's name, address, date of birth, gender, contact details and details of historic claims
- Special categories of personal data such as health and details on historic claims resulting in injury (physical and physiological)
- Data relating to criminal convictions and offences such as details of driving offences or insurance fraud

If you object to the collection, sharing and use of your personal data we may be unable to provide you with our products and services.

For the purposes of meeting the Data Protection Act 2018 territorial scope requirements, the United Kingdom is identified as the named territory where the processing of personal data takes place.

If you require more information about our insurance processes or further details on how we collect personal data and with whom we share data with, please contact our data privacy representative by e-mailing info@henryseymour.co.uk

WHY DO WE NEED YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We will use your personal data for the performance of our contract with you, to quote for and provide you with insurance products and services, to process claims and renewals, to administer your policy and our business, to respond to any requests from you about services we provide and to process complaints. We will also use your personal data to manage your account, perform statistical analysis on the data we collect, for financial planning and business forecasting purposes and to develop new and market existing products and services

We will use the special category and criminal conviction data we collect about you for the performance of our contract with you which is deemed to be necessary for reasons of substantial public interest. This allows us to quote for and provide you with insurance products and services, to process claims and renewals and to administer your policy

In purchasing our products and services you should understand that you are forming a contract with us. If you contact us for a quote or request details on the services we provide, we consider ourselves as having a legitimate business interest to provide you with further information about our services.

In some situations we may request your consent to market our products and services to you, to share your data or to transfer your data outside the European Economic Area. Where we require consent, your rights and what you are consenting to will be clearly communicated to you. Where you provide consent, you can withdraw this at any time by contacting our data privacy representative

We will retain your personal data at the end of any contractual agreement for a period of 6 years. We will retain special category and criminal conviction data for a period of 6 years. Where you have submitted a claim, we will retain your data for a period of 6 years after the end of the policy if it is a non-injury claim; where an individual has been injured (physical and physiological), we will retain your data for 6 years after the end of the policy. Where you have requested a quote, we will retain your personal data for 3 years, where you have contacted us for details of our services and products, we will retain your personal data for 3 years. Where you make a complaint we will retain the data for 6 years after the end of the policy. Where you or law enforcement agencies inform us about any active investigation or potential criminal prosecution, we will comply with legal requirements when retaining this data.

The retaining of data is necessary where required for contractual, legal or regulatory purposes or for our legitimate business interests for statistical analysis (profiling) and product development and marketing purposes.

Sometimes we may need to retain your data for longer, for example if we are representing you or defending ourselves in a legal dispute or as required by law or where evidence exists that a future claim may occur.

You should be aware that we use automated decision making (services/tools and techniques) to check for customer suitability to our products, for example we might perform a credit search to check an individual's solvency and credit rating. We also analyse data to identify products and services that customers may be interested in, this is commonly known as profiling. You have the right to object to the use of profiling activities and the use of automated decision making (services/tools and techniques).

Please contact our data privacy representative if you object to the use of, or you have any questions relating to the use of, your data, the retention of your personal data or the use of profiling and automated decision making services/tools and techniques. You can opt out of receiving marketing services by e-mailing optout@henryseymour.co.uk

YOUR RIGHTS

Individuals are provided with legal rights governing the use of their personal data. These grant individuals the right to understand what personal data relating to them is held, for what purpose, how it is collected and used, with whom it is shared, where it is located, to object to its processing, to have the data corrected if inaccurate, to take copies of the data and to place restrictions on its processing. Individuals can also request the deletion of their personal data. These rights are known as Individual Rights under the Data Protection Act 2018. The following list details these rights:

- The right to be informed about the personal data being processed;
- The right of access to your personal data;
- The right to object to the processing of your personal data;
- The right to restrict the processing of your personal data;
- The right to rectification of your personal data;
- The right to erasure of your personal data;
- The right to data portability (to receive an electronic copy of your personal data);
- Rights relating to automated decision making including profiling.

Individuals can exercise their Individual Rights at any time. As mandated by law we will not charge a fee to process these requests, however if your request is considered to be repetitive, wholly unfounded and/or excessive, we are entitled to charge a reasonable administration fee.

In exercising your Individual Rights, you should understand that in some situations we may be unable to fully meet your request, for example if you make a request for us to delete all your personal data, we may be required to retain some data for taxation, prevention of crime and for regulatory and other statutory purposes.

You should understand that when exercising your rights, a substantial public or vital interest may take precedence over any request you make. In addition, where these interests apply, we are required by law to grant access to this data for law enforcement, legal and/or health related matters.

The flow of data within the insurance sector is complex and we ask you to keep this in mind when exercising your 'rights of access' to your information. Where we may be reliant on other organisations to help satisfy your request this may impact on timescales.

If you require further information on your Individual Rights or you wish to exercise your Individual Rights, please contact our data privacy representative by e-mailing info@henryseymour.co.uk or by writing to us at Chancery House, St Nicholas Way, Sutton, Surrey SM1 1JB.

PROTECTING YOUR DATA

We will take all appropriate technical and organisational steps to protect the confidentiality, integrity, availability and authenticity of your data, including when sharing your data within our firm and authorised third parties.

DATA PRIVACY REPRESENTATIVE

To ensure data privacy and protection has appropriate focus within our organisation we have a Data Privacy Representative who reports to our senior management team. The Data Privacy Representative's contact details are: Linda Plows, Chancery House, St Nicholas Way, Sutton, Surrey SM1 1JB or datarequest@henryseymour.co.uk

COMPLAINTS

If you are dissatisfied with any aspect of the way in which we process your personal data please contact data privacy representative. You also have the right to complain to the UK's data protection supervisory authority, the Information Commissioner's Office(ICO). The ICO may be contacted via its website which is <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>, by live chat or by calling their helpline on 0303 123 1113.

HOW TO CONTACT US

Information You have to provide to Us

In deciding to accept this Policy and in setting the terms and premium, We have relied on the information You have given Us. You must take care when answering any questions asked by Us ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If We establish that You deliberately or recklessly provided Us with false or misleading information We will treat Your Policy as if it never existed and decline all claims. We may not return premium already paid by You in this situation.

If We establish that You provided Us with false, incomplete or misleading information, it can adversely affect Your Policy and any claim.

Where We could have accepted the risk and offered You a Policy but We would have charged a higher premium, We may only pay a percentage of any claim that You make under the Policy. We would do this by considering the premium We actually charged as a percentage of the higher premium We would have charged and then paying You the same percentage of any claim

We may treat your Policy as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium, subject to a deduction for any commission paid to Your Broker. We will only do this if the false, incomplete or misleading information means that We provided You with insurance cover when We would not otherwise have offered it at all had the risk been fairly presented

If We would have written the risk on different terms had it been fairly presented, We may amend the Policy to include these terms. We may apply these amended terms as if they were already in place before a claim is made

We may cancel Your Policy in accordance with its cancellation provisions

We will write to You if We:

1. intend to treat Your Policy as if it never existed; or
2. amend the terms of Your Policy; or
3. reduce Your claim in accordance with the above

If You become aware that information You have given Us is inaccurate or incomplete, You must inform Us as soon as practicable.

Average

Where a Sum Insured is subject to average if at the time of the Damage the Sum Insured is less than the total value of the property You will be considered as Your own insurer for the difference and bear a proportionate share of the loss

Basis of Claims Settlement for Property

Whenever the Basis of Claims Settlement is declared to be on a Reinstatement Basis the basis upon which the amount payable in respect of the Property Insured is to be calculated shall be as follows

1. the rebuilding or replacement of Property Insured lost or destroyed which provided Our liability is not increased may be carried out
 - a. in any manner suitable to Your requirements
 - b. upon another site
2. the repair or restoration of Property Insured damaged

in either case to a condition equivalent to or substantially the same as but not better or more extensive than its condition when new

Special Conditions

1. Our liability for the repair or restoration of Property Insured damaged in part only shall not exceed the amount which would have been payable had such Property Insured been wholly destroyed
2. If at the time of reinstatement the sum representing 85% of the cost which would have been incurred in reinstating the whole of the Property Insured covered by any item subject to this Condition exceeds its Sum Insured at the commencement of any Damage Our liability shall not exceed that proportion of the amount of the Damage which the Sum Insured shall bear to the sum representing the total cost of reinstating the whole of such Property Insured at that time
3. No payment beyond the amount which would have been payable in the absence of this Condition shall be made
 - a. unless reinstatement commences and proceeds without unreasonable delay
 - b. until the cost of reinstatement shall have been actually incurred
 - c. if the Property Insured at the time of the Damage shall be insured by any other insurance effected by You or on Your behalf which is not upon the same basis of reinstatement

Contribution

Applicable to the Legal Liabilities Section

1. If the insurance provided by these sections is also covered by another policy (or would but for the existence of these sections) We will only indemnify You in respect of any excess beyond the amount which would be payable under such other insurance had these sections not been effected

Applicable to all other Sections insured by this Policy

2. Where any loss destruction damage or liability covered by the Policy is also covered by another policy (or would be but for the existence of this Policy) We will only pay a rateable share of the loss
3. If the other insurance is subject to a condition of average and this Policy is not this Policy will become subject to the same condition of average
4. If the Property insured covered by the other insurance is subject to a provision excluding proportional payment in whole or part the payment We make will be limited to the proportion of loss destruction or damage as the Sum Insured bears to the value of the property

Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

A person or company who was not a party to this Policy has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Policy but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act

Discharge of Liability

We may at any time pay

1. the Limit of Liability or the Limit of Indemnity or
2. the Sum Insured or
3. a smaller amount for which a claim can be settled after deduction of any sum already paid We will not make any further payments except for costs and expenses incurred prior to the payment of the claim

Excesses

If We agree to indemnify You under both Contents and Buildings Sections of this Policy as a result of the happening of a single event and if an Excess applies under both these Sections then only one Excess being the higher of those which would have applied separately under each Section will be deducted from the total claim payment

Fraud

If a claim made by You or anyone acting on Your behalf to obtain a benefit under this Policy is in any respect fraudulent or uses fraudulent means or devices or intentionally exaggerates or a false declaration or statement is made in support of a claim all benefit under this Policy shall be forfeited

Index Linking

Whenever a Sum Insured is declared to be subject to Index Linking it is adjusted at monthly intervals as follows

1. in respect of Buildings Landlords Fixtures and Fittings internal decorations shop fronts and tenants improvements in accordance with the percentage change in the General Building Cost Information Service
2. in respect of Stock in trade in accordance with the percentage change in the Producer Price Index for Home Sales of Manufactured Products
3. in respect of all other Contents other than Stock in trade in accordance with the Durable Goods Section of the Retail Prices Index

At each renewal the premium will be adjusted to apply to the Sum Insured which then pertains and We waive all rights to additional premium arising solely out of such index adjustments prior to renewal

Interest Clause

The interests of third parties which You are required to include on this Policy under the terms of any mortgage property lease or hiring leasing or hire purchase agreement are automatically noted subject to You advising Us as soon as is reasonably practicable
